Experiment-10

- Aim :- Install the active directory domain Services in window 2016. Installing a new foust by using the graphical user Interfau.

- Procedure :-

① Open Server manager → role
② Select active directory domain services from list. you will be told that you need to add some features, click on the add required features button.
③ Click next and then click install to Start installing binaries for active directory
④ After installation on acess manager appears

- Configuration :-
• Start → Run → type → dcpromo to run ADDs wizard
- The message that is shown now relate to older client that do not support the new crypto graphic algorithm.

Teacher's Signature : _____

1

- If this is the first forest in your active directory environment, Select the option.

- pick a name for your forest and set it
- Services this, So the first DC in our domain, we can change our forest functional level to Server 2016 R2
- Include DNS in the installation as this will allow you to have an AD integrated DNS zone.

- Select the folder where your database log files and Sys will be stored. It is a recommended to stick to the default settings.

- Enter unique active directory rest are mode. password that are recovered.

- Once the installation is complete, the server will be automatically released to apply the configuration.